All which Addreſſes Her Majeſty receiv'd very graciouſly.

Vienna, Auguſt 22. N. S. An Expreſs, who left Barcelona the fourth Inſtant, has brought Advice to this Court of the ſafe arrival of the Queen of Spain, with the Troops embark'd in Italy. Her Catholick Majeſty landed at Mataro on the 26th of July, and made her publick Entry into Barcelona on the 1ſt Inſtant, the King riding on Horſeback under a Canopy, and the Queen being in a Coach, attended by the Ladies of her Court. They went directly to Church, and receiv'd a Bleſſing on their Marriage from the Hands of the Archbiſhop of Tarragona, aſſiſted by ſeveral other Prelates; and afterwards ſupped in Publick, and were ſerv'd at Table by the chief Officers of their Court. The King upon the occaſion of this Solemnity made four Grandees of Spain; Don Bernardo de Quiros, and Count Stampa, a Milaneſe, for their own Perſons; the Duke of Teleſa, and the Marquis of Moles, Grand-ſon to the Duke of Moles, for themſelves and their Deſcendants. The Troops landed likewiſe at Mataro, were review'd by the King, and had receiv'd Orders to march towards Tarragona. A Courier diſpatch'd from the Duke of Savoy's Camp at Chaumont the 13th Inſtant, brings Advice, that his Royal Highneſs had made Priſoners of War the Garriſons of Exilles, Perouſe, and Fort Lewis, beſides thoſe of ſeveral little Redoubts in thoſe Parts.

Berlin, Auguſt 28. N. S. His Majeſty was Eſpouſed to the Princeſs of Swerin on the 20th Inſtant, at Swerin. The Princeſs was Complimented with the Title of Pruſſian Majeſty, and ſerved at Table by one of the King's Chamberlains. The Marriage has been publiſh'd in all the Churches of this City. There was at the ſame time a triple Diſcharge of the Cannon. Monſieur the Chambellan Mareſchal was ſent to the Court of Hanover, to notifie this Marriage. The Prince of Anhalt-Deſſau is expected here within few Days. Letters from Wilda, of the 20th Inſtant, ſay, That Prince Menzikow and General Kepain are in Diſgrace with his Czariſh Majeſty: They add, that the Czar intends to come to a ſecond Engagement with the Swedes, and to command his Army in Perſon.

From the Camp at Peronne, September 3. N. S. On Friday, the 31ſt of Auguſt, we had Advice that the Enemy were advanc'd between Antoin and Tournay; whereupon his Grace the Duke of Marlborough march'd with the Army under his Command from Helchin to Templeuve, from whence we continu'd our March the next Day; and having paſs'd the Marque at Pont a Treſſin, came and encamp'd with the Right at Antreulle, the Left at Anſtain, and the head Quarters at Peronne on the Plains of Liſle. As ſoon as our Troops were come into their Camp, his Grace went to that of the Prince of Savoy before Liſle, and having dined with his Highneſs, and conferr'd with him and the other General Officers, he came in the Evening to his Quarters. Yeſterday Morning Prince Eugene came hither, and rode out with his Grace to the Right of the Line, to view the Ground about Phalempin, and to mark out a Line for our Army to form in Battel, and to expect the Enemy in caſe they think fit to attempt the Relief of the Town. At two in the Afternoon they return'd to his Grace's Quarters, where King Auguſtus and the Landgrave of Heſſe were arriv'd ſome time before from the Siege; his Grace had the Honour to entertain them at Dinner, with the Deputies of the States, the Hereditary Prince of Heſſe, and ſeveral other General Officers; and in the Evening they went back to the Camp before Liſle. His Grace had an Account laſt Night that the Enemies whole Army paſs'd the Schelde in the Morning at Tournay, and were encamp'd with the Right at Blandain, and the Left at Willemeau. This Morning we took a Spy of the Enemy's going into Liſle; who, upon Examination, owns he was ſent laſt Night by the Duke of Burgundy to endeavour to get into the Town, and acquaint Monſieur de Boufflers their Army was on this ſide Tournay, and that he might depend upon being ſuccour'd. The Enemy have continu'd their March this Day towards Orchies and the Source of the Marque, round which they muſt come if they attempt to raiſe the Siege.

From the Camp at Fretin, Sept. 6. N. S. On Tueſday the 4th Inſtant his Grace the Duke of Marlborough receiv'd advice, that the Enemy's Army were continuing their March towards the Ouverture, into the Plains of Liſle between the Marque and Phalempin; his Grace thereupon order'd the Army to march to the Ground mark'd out for them, and to form in Battel between Noielles and Peronne; they continu'd ſo 'till Noon, and then encamp'd on the ſame Ground. In the Evening, beſides the Advice we had of the Enemy's Motions, we could hear by their Drums that they were advancing nearer to us; and they having given out they would immediately attempt the Relief of the Siege, his Grace drew out the Army again at break of Day, in order to give them Battel, being join'd by the Prince of Savoy with 72 Squadrons and 26 Battalions from the Siege, with which Troops came likewiſe King Auguſtus and the Landgrave of Heſſe as Volunteers; but the Enemy having not thought fit to appear, tho' we purpoſely left all the Paſſes thro' which they were to come and form, open and unguarded, Prince Eugene after Dining with his Grace, together with the King and the Landgrave, return'd in the Evening with his Troops to the Siege; and our Army encamp'd again with the Right at Noielles, and the Left at Peronne; and the Enemy ſeeming chiefly to deſign the fatiguing our Troops by frequent Alarms, his Grace order'd 100 Men of a Battalion to be employ'd in throwing up a Retrenchment in our Front, which was finiſh'd this Day, and will both ſecure our Troops from any ſudden ſurprize, and leave the Beſiegers at liberty to carry on their Attacks without interruption. The 4th at Night a Quarter-Maſter and 25 of the Enemy's Dragoons fell in with one of our Outguards, and were all made Priſoners without firing a Shot. Yeſterday General Fagel, who has for ſome time commanded a Corps in Flanders, having left ſufficient Garriſons there, and in Brabant, join'd us with ſeven Battalions, and as many Squadrons, having left four Battalions and one Squadron to come forward with a Convoy
